BOGOTA COLOMBIA

Bogotá is the capital of Colombia and the largest city in the country. It is the place where people from every corner of the country convergence and is therefore diverse and multicultural.

Within this city, the past and present come together. The city is also very green thanks to its parks and the mountains that extend along its eastern boundary, dwarfed by their two highest points, Monserrate and Guadalupe. The landscape the people of Bogotá enjoy daily —the sea of green that makes up the Andes mountain range, rising from in the east— would be nearly impossible to find in any other large city.

But Bogotá also has the colours of modern buildings and authentic colonial roof tiles that are a true historical treasure from the colonial era.

Live the Bogota culture from its different facets in the panoramic tour. You will discover the main tourist areas and the most recognized places in the city: parks, historical squares, restaurants, special cafes and spaces where you can enjoy the nightlife of the Capital.

With a perfect combination of mystical and unique experiences, visit the Guatavita Lagoon, a sacred site for the Muisca culture and a place that inspired the Legend of “El Dorado”. Afterwards, you will cross the Sabana de Bogotá and arrive at the Salt Cathedral of Zipaquirá, the first wonder of Colombia. With its stunning architecture completely carved out of salt, this underground temple will bring you an amazing experience when visiting the world's largest virtual reality theatre, water mirror, and underground cross.

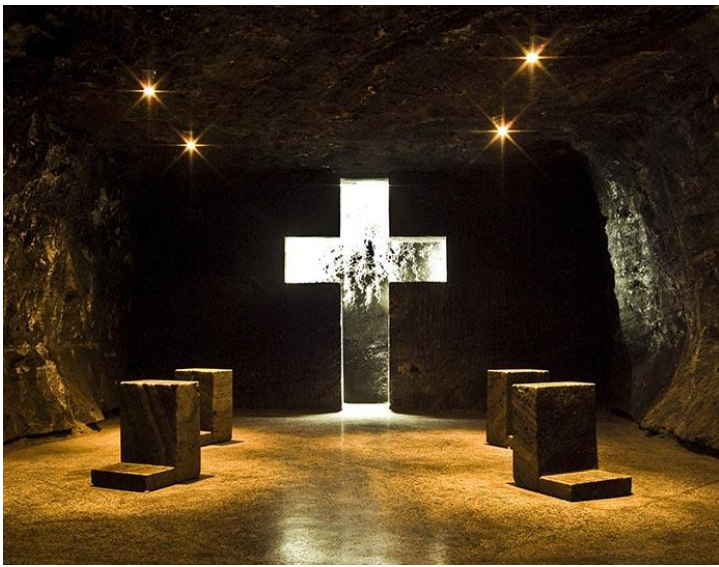

Nothing better than learning the process of coffee making on the field with a local expert, Colombia is well-known as one of the best producers of coffee in the world; the mountains and the tropical climate contribute to the soft flavour and multiple aromas of our coffee. Besides, you will be able to appreciate beautiful landscapes while you taste an exquisite cup of Colombian coffee.

You will discover the local food and share with the community while visiting market plazas and traditional places of the city in our gastronomic tour. If something is very well known in Colombia, is the variety of products that are unique in each region. In Bogotá, you can find delicacies from all over the country: fruits, coffees, typical dishes and desserts; a whole culinary experience where you will delight yourself with aromas, sensations and an explosion of flavours. You will be surprised with the story behind each preparation.

If do you want 2 days more, you can discover Villa de Leyva history, considered one of the heritage towns in Colombia, combines natural landscapes with pre-Columbian architectural beauty. To reach this destination, you will discover magical places like the town of Ráquira, known as the artisan capital of Colombia, characterized by the handicraft work in clay.
